The show is in a special room called the Theatre.

You can get there in the lift or you can take the stairs.

On the way you will pass the Creative Learning Space, this will be available as a chill out space while you are here. You are welcome to use it at any point during your visit.
Before the show, you may need to use the toilets these are near the lift. There are more toilets near the Theatre doors.

There are four doors to enter the Theatre: Door A, Door B, Door C and Door D. You can find out which door you should go through by looking at your ticket.

Our stewards wear uniform that looks like this. They will be waiting nearby to help you find your way into the Theatre and to find your seat.
Inside the Theatre there are rows of seats. They are staggered so everyone gets a good view of the stage.

Your ticket number will tell you where you are sitting. This will be your seat for the whole show. You can leave the theatre at any point during the performance to visit the toilet or to find a quiet space.

The Very Hungry Caterpillar Show is a theatre show, it's not like a film in the cinema.

When you are in the theatre you will see a stage that looks like this.
There will be people on the stage telling you a story, they are called ‘performers’ or ‘actors’ and they will look like this:

There will also be lots of puppets. Some are big like Brown Bear:
Some are small like Rubber Duck:

There are lots of colourful animals! Do you know who they all are?
Maybe you can count how many you can see?
When the show starts, it will be time to be quiet and listen. The lights will turn down a little bit—but it will not go too dark. The performers will begin to tell you a story. They will use words, acting, dancing and lots of puppets!
The stories they will tell you are...
When the show is finished, people will clap their hands to say thank you to the performers.

It’s great fun to go to the theatre.
