WE'VE ALL BEEN THERE, LEFT THE HOUSE IN A RUSH AND FORGOTTEN THE MOST IMPORTANT THINGS!!

That's why we have a few of the necessities, complimentary, should you need it: Baby milk, nappies, wipes, baby food and bibs. Just ask your waiter.

FEATURED ARTWORK

Zarah Hussain's Desert Night Sky II

Let's explore this beautiful painting together!
Answer these questions to learn more about it:

- What can you see in the painting?
- What colours do you notice?
- Do you see any interesting shapes?
- Can you use three words to describe it?
- What do you like best about it?
- Why do you think the artist made it?
- What does it make you think about?

CAN YOU FIND THESE COOL THINGS?

In our entrance area, there are 4 big clocks. Each clock shows a different time, and together they make a bigger picture. It's like a puzzle! This artwork is called The Warwick Dials by Richard Wentworth. They welcome you to 'Warwick Arts Centre time.'

Just outside, you'll see a huge sculpture called the White Koan by Liliane Lijn. It's 6 meters tall and spins around with lights. Some people say it used to be part of a rocket from a space mission!

We have lots of stairs at Warwick Arts Centre. Look for signs to the cinemas. How many stairs do you need to climb to get there? Can you find all the cinemas?

Follow the signs to the Music Centre. There, you'll find some funny-looking instruments. Can you make any sounds with them? This is our Musical Playground, and it's free for everyone to enjoy!

We hope you have a fantastic time exploring the arts and having fun at Warwick Arts Centre!

Warwick Arts
Centre will be 50
years old in 2024!
