WELCOME

As winter turns to spring, there's a wonderfully rich mix of events and activities lined up at Warwick Arts Centre. Of course, you'll find plenty of instantly familiar faces, including Mo Gilligan, British soul icon Omar, No Such Thing As A Fish co-host Dan Schreiber, tenor Alfie Boe OBE and broadcaster Michaela Strachan.

But that's barely scratching the surface, as our stages also welcome electric Bridgerton favourites the Vitamin String Quartet, remarkable Belgian theatre-makers Ontroerend Goed, and The Paper Birds, sharing a work-in-progress of their latest devised production. Plus Hijinx celebrate the 10th anniversary of their globe-trotting 5-star Meet Fred, and Paula Varjack dissects a pop icon's downfall. We also continue our uplifting Handle With Care! season, with the family-focused Ruby's Worry and Brave Bettie particular highlights.

Meanwhile, our ongoing commitment to championing regional talent continues with a return visit from Ascension Dance Company (choreographed by Warwick Arts Centre 'Artistic Associate', Ashley Jordan), and Edinburgh Comedy Award-winning Sam Nicoresti, while our Made In The Midlands commissioning programme showcases three exciting new pieces.

Visit our cinemas for monthly Cosy Classics, Relaxed screenings for families and more from the world of film.

In our gallery, it's your last chance to see the acclaimed UK debut of Japanese ceramic artist Takuro Kuwata before Paris-based Latvian artist Daiga Grantina brings an exhibition which draws inspiration from how materials meet and react to each other in a groundbreaking immersive experience.

TAKURO KUWATA: TEA BOWL

Exhibition continues until Sun 15 Mar 2026*

Takuro Kuwata's colourful sculptures have taken over the Mead Gallery. Kuwata fuses traditional Japanese pottery techniques with bold and experimental sculptural processes. His use of vivid glazes, distorted silhouettes, and explosive textures has redefined the boundaries of contemporary ceramics, attracting international acclaim.

This is his first UK institution solo exhibition and is generously supported by The Japan Foundation, the

Henry Moore Foundation, Bates Timber Merchants,
PotClays and Alison Jacques.

FREE

*Please note that from Mon 15 Dec to Mon 12 Jan, the exhibition will be open from 10am to 4pm on Tuesdays, Saturdays and Sundays.

GALLERY EVENTS

GALLERY STUDIO

Until Sun 15 Mar

The artist collective Modern Clay have relocated their studio into the gallery space. Visitors are invited to engage directly with the making process, gaining greater understanding of the work of Takuro Kuwata through creating their own ceramic vessels.

ARTISTS IN CONVERSATION: MAKING CERAMICS

Tue 10 Feb 6.30pm – 7.30pm

Featuring three leading contemporary artists, who each take very different approaches. Aaron Angel runs Troy Town, a radical and psychedelic workshop for artists; currently exhibiting at Compton Verney, Renée So explores cultural identity through ceramic works; and Modern Clay's Jo Masding engages with ceramics as a political and poetic practice.

Chaired by Alun Graves, Senior Curator, Ceramics and Glass, V&A Museum.

NEW - GALLERY EARLY: ICHI

Sun 31 May 11am – 12pm

We're introducing a Gallery Early, especially for young children & their families.

ICHI takes the notion of a one-man-band to new limits combining his quirky handmade instrument inventions (Stilt-bass, Kalilaphone, Balloon-pipes, Hatbox-pedal-drum, Tapumpet, Percussion-shoes and Hattrick-hat) with steel-drum, ping-pong balls, typewriter, toys & everyday objects.

It's fun, it's danceable, it's exciting!

SUMMER EXHIBITION

DAIGA GRANTINA

Fri 8 May - Sun 28 Jun

Exhibition Opening Thu 7 May 6pm - 8pm

Daiga Grantina represented Latvia at the 2019 Venice Biennale and now lives and works in Paris. This is her first solo exhibition in a UK art gallery.

Her sculptural practice investigates how materials meet and react to each other in ways that make us look again at their scale, form, and meaning. These interactions echo the ways that living systems and environments evolve shifting, growing, and unfolding across multiple dimensions.

Drawing inspiration from bodies and landscapes, Grantina creates abstract forms that resist easy definition. Her works appear to remake themselves continuously, inviting viewers into a space where perception is unsettled and reimagined.

MEET IN MOVIES

It's the best time of year for cinema! Join us up to and beyond the big awards ceremonies in the spring with new and award-winning voices from across the world of independent film, and we've also got you covered with the latest big releases that everyone will be talking about. Enjoy our monthly relaxed and family-friendly films, and you won't want to miss our regular live film talks & film-maker Q&As alongside touring film festivals.

One of the front-runners for Best Director looks to be previous Oscar-winner Chloé Zhao (Nomadland) with Hamnet starring Paul Mescal and Jessie Buckley and we're also very excited to share another adaptation - Emerald Fennell's (Saltburn) Wuthering Heights features Margot Robbie and Jacob Elordi in the lead roles.

Our Handle with Care! season continues with two more special Cosy Classic screenings – cinematic self-care with a free cuppa, biscuit and blankets – of Amélie and In The Mood for Love. The Care on Screen and Care Behind the Scenes strands will feature workshops or live talks alongside films such as How to Have Sex and Deaf. We're also hosting Cinema Rediscovered On Tour with the critically-acclaimed Killer of Sheep.

In the summer we'll be returning to a galaxy far, far away in cinemas for the first time in 7 years with Star Wars: The Mandalorian and Grogu. Christopher Nolan takes us on an even more epic journey with his hotly-anticipated The Odyssey, and our popular season of big-screen classics Sun Screen is back for your viewing pleasure.

Ontroerend Goed
HANDLE WITH CARE
Tue 3 Feb 7.45pm

In Handle with Care, Ontroerend Goed puts you in control. We provide the structure; you shape the experience.

Choose your role-take the lead or observe as others make choices that steer the performance in unexpected directions. Together, you create something special: a shared experience filled with reflections on time, transience, and togetherness.

And don't worry-there are no wrong choices in Handle with Care. You've got this. For one hour, you'll live something unique, fleeting, and unrepeatable. Here. Now. Together.

NINE SIXTEENTHS

By Paula Varjack

Thu 12 Feb 7.45pm

In 2004, in the Super Bowl half time show finale, Justin Timberlake ripped off Janet Jackson's top. Her breast was exposed on screen for nine sixteenths of a second. A pop icon and role model for many black women, and an outspoken ally for the LGBTQ community, the moment derailed Jackson's career for many years, while Timberlake's thrived. But who was invested in the backlash? What does this say about who controls the media, and the ways black women are scrutinised in the public eye?

COMMUNITY PROJECTS: CARING CREATIVE COLLABORATIVE

Warwick Arts Centre is committed to regular, free and targeted engagement for the communities we serve. From artist-led workshops to free tickets, our community projects work in partnership with the schools, organisations and people within our target wards in Coventry with an aim to bring creativity to all.

YOUTH LEADERSHIP COLLECTIVE

The Youth Leadership Collective is an open and collaborative space for young people aged 15 – 22 from Coventry to work on shaping their leadership and creative skills. Through workshops, career talks and leading their own events they discover their voices and vision to shape the programme.

As the young leaders of tomorrow, they work together to amplify their voices to advocate for the creative future of their generation in the city of Coventry and our region. Delivered in partnership with YMCA Heart of England.

PLATFORM

Keep an eye out for bold, creative, student-led shows and workshops! PLATFORM is our stream of programming led by the next generation of student talent and supported by the team at Warwick Arts Centre. From performances to music sets, poetry to visual arts, see fresh perspectives and emerging ideas - don't miss what they're making.

THE CLASSROOM OF CREATIVITY

This programme inspires artists, teachers and pupils to work together to design creative activities through the visual arts, putting educators at the centre of our work with schools. Working with Coventry primary schools our aim is to embed creativity into the curriculum, and develop both the academic, social and personal worlds of the children we work with.

ECO UPDATE

As part of our commitment to sustainability, this summer we embarked on changing all the lights in our theatre and studio to LED. We estimate that this will save us 46.9 tonnes of CO₂ per year.

Details correct at time of going to print November 2025.

YOUR DONATIONS COUNT

We believe the arts are a place we can all meet. Your donations, whatever the size, mean even more families in our community can enjoy performances and make memories they cherish.
